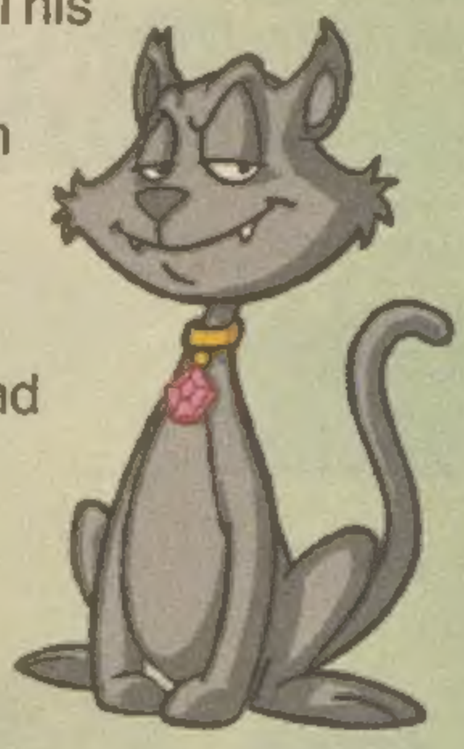
EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers,

I hope you've been watching the "Archie's Weird Mysteries" show on PAX TV. In case you haven't, the show is on every Saturday morning. Check your cable listings for the exact time and channel. Speaking of ARCHIE'S WEIRD MYSTERIES, get ready for issue number 2. This new title, which is based on the show, has all-new adventures featuring Archie and his friends, along with some very mysterious characters. In the latest adventure, someone seems to be taking their love of scary ghost movies too far. But what if it's not a movie lover, but a real ghost? Don't miss this frightfully funny issue next month.

In VERONICA #97, a family reunion at a ski resort proves once and for all that the Lodges are the most eccentric millionaires of all. However, their days of being wealthy are numbered, as a pair of unscrupulous impostors attempt to dip into the family fortune. The one person who can save them from these "newfound relatives" is cousin Leroy. The problem is, no one believes him. This story is entitled, "Now This Is What I Call a Ski Lodge."



If you're a pet lover, then put issue #3 of the all-new SABRINA on your shopping list. Competition heats up between Salem and Gem's dog, Ruby, when they're both entered in the Greendale Pet Show. Needless to say, the competition between Gem and Sabrina also reaches the boiling point. The big question here is, can Sabrina and Salem control themselves from using magic to win first prize?... And will good, clean sportsmanship prevail? In "Pet Show Down," everyone learns a lesson.

The Lincolns

by Adam Elkins

Northbrook, Il

$10 FIRST PRIZE

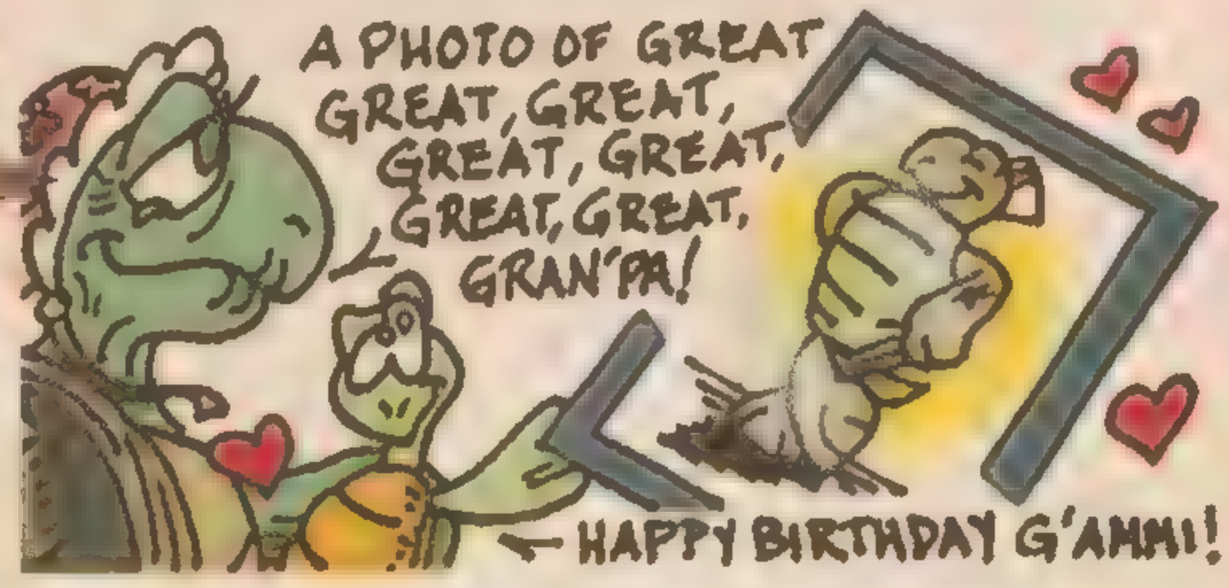
Abraham Lincoln was born February 12, 1809 in Kentucky. Abe's mother died when he was nine. His father remarried. His stepmother would say he was going to be a great man someday. Abe had a sister Sara who was two years older. At age 19 Abe got a job taking a flatboat down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers to New Orleans. He saw slave markets and black people chained together. He never forgot this. Abe went to Springfield, Illinois and became a lawyer. There he met Mary, and they married. They had four boys; only Robert, the oldest son survived. Lincoln ran for President by debating against slavery. In 1861 he was elected the 16th President. This divided the country in civil war. The northern states were opposed to slavery. The south fought to keep it. Lincoln was reelected in1864. Six months later he was shot by John Wilkes Booth, a famous actor, during a play. His wife was then so sad, she was hospitalized. Robert Lincoln married and had one son, who didn't marry. He was the last descendent of Lincoln.

Galapagos Turtles

by Chhaya Kolavalli,

El Dorado, KS

$5 SECOND PRIZE



The Galapagos turtle is one of the longest living animals on earth. It can live more than 100 years. They weigh up to 681 pounds. They form seven to twenty eggs and dig a ten foot deep hole to lay them in. It takes them 246 days to hatch. That's almost a year! It takes them 40 to 50 years to become an adult. They live on the Galapagos islands. The scientific name for the Galapagos turtle is Geochelone Elephantopus! They are very picky eaters; they only eat leaves, flowers and lichens. They are becoming extinct because people are eating their eggs and collecting their shells. Conservationists are setting up incubation centers and more than 3,500 tortoises have been added to the wild.

"WELL," SAID JUG," IT'S THE THOUGHT THAT COUNTS!" THAT'S GOOD,' CAUSE OF CASH WE AIN'T GOT GREAT AMOUNTS!"
